BEIT MIRIAM GRADUATION

West End Synagogue's Beit Miriam students will be celebrating the culmination of 13 years of Jewish learning with the Graduation Class of 2018 on Saturday evening, May 5, at 8:00 p.m. at the Synagogue.

The community is invited to join us for Ma'a'riv services, Havdalah and a program written by our students: "What Being Jewish Means to Me." The services and the program will be led by the 11th grade students. The Nathan Davis Award will be presented to the outstanding student in the graduation class and the Sandra Klein Goldstein Award will be presented to a graduating student for outstanding community service.

A dessert reception will be hosted by the parents of our graduates. The graduates are: Anabella Ruth Barocas, Aden Leva Barton, Jacob Alexander Bengelsdorf, Rachel Amanda Cohen, Joshua Gabriel Crowley, Jonah David Herman, Ellie Lillian Hornick, Shoshana Ella Kelner, Casey Jacob Newell, Samantha Lillian Prebus, Bianca March Sass, Jakob Ross Schaefer, and Max Nathan Yazdian.

Mazel tov to the student and their parents.

OPIOID CRISIS FORUM

WES Social Action Committee is presenting a public forum, "The Opioid Crisis: What is it: What are opioids? How did we get here: What we can do," on Thursday, May 10, at 7:00 p.m. Designed to help Nashvilleans understand this public health crisis affecting people of all ages and backgrounds, the forum will feature panelists from the Tennessee Medical Foundation—Physician Health Program; Nashville Prevention Partnership; Tennessee Association of Alcohol, Drug & Other Addictions Services; the Metro Nashville Fire Department; and a moderator from the Metro Public Health Department. Spread the word to family and friends.
