PASSOVER AT WEST END
Come be a part of our First Night Seders on Monday, April 10.

—Interactive Musical Family Seder: Led by Debby and Stuart Wiston and Rabbi Joshua Kullock, this seder will have all generations up out of their seats singing and dancing as they recreate the Exodus from Egypt and the crossing of the Red Sea.

—Ancient Story, Modern Meaning: Led by Rabbi Josh Barton, this seder will take the Haggadah’s advice to “see yourself as if you left Egypt” and learn how the Passover seder can speak to each of our spiritual lives.

Each seder begins at 6:00 p.m. and will be followed at 7:00 p.m. by a meal with singing followed by discussion. Cost is $45 for adults, $25 for children 6–12, $10 for Children 3–5, no charge for children under 3, $60 for non-members. RSVP by Wednesday, April 5 to office@westendsyn.org or (615) 269–4592. Please let us know if you would like to make a donation to ensure that everyone can join us.

GET RID OF YOUR CHAMETZ!
Before Passover, it is mandated for Jewish homes to be cleansed of all Chametz. According to Jewish Law, the Chametz may be stored in a safe place in the home, and a “proxy” may be assigned to the Rabbi giving him authority to sell it to a non-Jew for the duration of the holiday. This year, Rabbi Joshua Kullock will be selling Chametz to Chief Anderson of the Metro Nashville Police. To assign power of attorney to Rabbi Joshua Kullock for the sale, log onto www.westendsyn.org, print the form and send it to the Rabbi by April 7.

It is customary to make a donation when ridding your house of Chametz. All donations should be made out to Rabbi’s Discretionary Fund which will be forwarded to one of two causes. The money provides for needy Jews who cannot afford to observe Passover in Nashville and will benefit Chief Anderson’s fund for families of fallen officers.
