These amounts include the cost of all textbooks and workbooks and are only a partial payment of the total school budget, the balance of which is financed from the Synagogue General Fund. Students who live out of town or attend Akiva Day School are not required to attend mid-week classes until the 6th grade however; we strongly encourage their participation in our school's once a month Shabbat Class and Junior Congregation program.

Scholarships

Scholarships are available from the Halachmi/Birnbaum Fund and the Mildred Hersh Scholarship Fund. If you need a scholarship, please contact the Director of Lifelong Learning (spaz@westendsyn.org) or the Executive Director of the Synagogue (mstewart@westendsyn.org). Students will not be turned away for financial reasons. However, any family needing financial assistance must make arrangements in writing with the Executive Director, one week in advance of school.

Textbooks

Textbooks will be loaned and collected at the end of the academic year. Should a book be lost, mutilated or torn beyond average use, a full charge will be made for the book. All books will be available for purchase.
