SISTERHOOD SHABBAT

Margie Miller, President, Women's League for Conservative Judaism, is coming to Nashville the weekend of February 9–11, to help us celebrate Sisterhood Shabbat. Margie is an inspiration to all who have had a chance to meet her and hear her speak, so please join us for any or all of these events!

We look forward to welcoming Margie at this special Sisterhood Shabbat. Margie is always actively involved—especially in helping others—plus she seeks out new pathways, not satisfied with the status quo. She has turned personal tragedy into a lifelong commitment to helping others, and she sees possibilities where others see limitations. She embodies the model of a problem solver, due to challenging events in her life. She has turned personal tragedy into a lifelong commitment, having had to do so herself so often. She is the classic lemons-turned-into-lemonade person. Margie is always there for everyone, whether to solve a problem or simply for a warm hug!

There will be multiple opportunities for you to engage with Margie as follows:

☆ Friday night, February 9—She will speak after Shabbat dinner.

☆ Saturday, February 10—She will give the D'var Torah for Sisterhood Shabbat.

☆ Sunday, February 11—She will be speaking to religious school parents at a special Beit Miriam Bagel Brunch from 9:00–10:15 am.

Keep checking your WES emails, “What’s Coming Up at WES” for more details.
