JUDY SAKS SELECTED VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR BY WEST END SYNAGOGUE

The Social Action Committee of West End Synagogue has chosen Judy Saks as their Volunteer of the Year. The award is given annually in recognition of outstanding contributions made to the greater Nashville community by a member of WES. Judy will be formally honored at the annual Social Action Shabbat at WES to be held December 2.

Judy is a founding member of the Family of Abraham, an interfaith group and advocacy organization. She also has worked with the Islamic Center of Nashville to inspire the Nashville Interfaith Caravans to visit places of worship throughout the community.

She volunteers with the Tennessee Immigrant and Refugee Rights Coalition enabling citizenship applications and has also worked for the Nashville Literacy Council's program for immigrants, tutoring a young Egyptian woman.

Judy is a core member of the WES cooking team that cooks meals for the Salvation Army at the Nashville Food Project. She also continues her work with Catholic Charities for Hunger Banquets and Poverty Simulations.
