FLOOD VICTIM INFORMATION

Davidson County property owners whose homes were severely damaged by the May flood will get a tax break under a plan the Metro Council approved Tuesday.

The council unanimously enacted its version of legislation passed by the General Assembly in May. The new law allows flood victims to apply for a prorated reduction in the assessment of each property that was damaged at least 50 percent and was not replaced or restored for at least 30 days. The application deadline is Sept. 1.

SATURDAY'S KIDDUSH

The Kiddush for this Saturday is in honor of Cantor Weinberger and is sponsored by the Staff of West End Synagogue and the Adult Bat Mitzvah class comprised of Barbara Cohen, Margaret Reinheimer, Barbara Rittenberg, Sue Schwartz and Ros Shainberg.

UNVEILING

The unveiling for Bob Gluck will be held on August 8 at 10:00 a.m.

Davidson & Williamson/Cool Springs cards are available in the synagogue office; other counties upon request. Contact Ruth Pressman (rpress18@comcast.net or 794-7171) for information.

SISTERHOOD JUDAICA SHOP

So many weddings, so many gifts to buy! The Judaica Shop now has many new items that would make wonderful gifts for Jewish weddings. You'll also find numerous other Judaica items at prices that often are better than those you find online or in catalogs. Although the store is not open regular hours during the summer, the office staff will be happy to help you shop if you stop by WES. If you have special requests, or want one of us to meet you at the shop, please do not hesitate to contact either Ellen Vinocur Potash (673-6652 or ellenpotash@bellsouth.net) or Ruthi Sacks (776-2245 or rsacks2000@yahoo.com).
